The SHACK's Vision

To transform the parts of the culture in the Big Horn Basin that have trouble, difficulty, and dysfunction with the overcoming hope of God (Jeremiah 29:11).

Where ever a culture of trouble, difficulty, and dysfunction is found, The Shack will cultivate a new culture of joy, peace, and right living [soundness] (Romans 14:17-19) in individual lives, family relationships, and the fiber of whole communities. It is not our intent to force youth or others to participate in religious activities. All religious activities will follow the federal guidelines regarding the voluntary nature of the program.

New Year's Eve Party

We held our annual New Year's Eve Party at The SHACK from 7pm-Midnight. We had a great turnout this year with approximately 12 students showing up. We served pizza and snacks along with free gameplay. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves and we actually had students stay until midnight to ring in the new year.

Our open house that was on January 26th, had a amazing turnout as well. We had 30-40 people show up! Everyone that showed up enjoyed the 2 TV's and the snacks that were provided.

On Sunday, February 4th we were able to host a Super Bowl party and had 25-30 people attend! We had people from all ages join us in watching the game and eat all the free food.

A Word from David Bottom, Executive Director

As you can see from above, January and February were great months for The SHACK! If you haven't seen The SHACK in a few months, or ever, you need to stop in and see the new set up. In the next two weeks we'll have another exciting addition which you'll have to stop in and see. This is the first time the current SHACK approximates what the new SHACK will look like.

Please continue to persevere in prayer for the new building. We are still waiting the drawings to be submitted to the state. Then it will probably be about a month before they come back approved. Then, finally, we can take a major step forward the final piece being the pouring of the new floor.

There's a saying about Christmas that Jesus is the Reason for the season. In just a couple weeks we'll celebrate the greatest season of all in Easter. Ironic this year that it falls on April 1. Don't be fooled. Jesus has risen! He has risen indeed!

Thank you for continuing to journey with us! Blessings!
